

RajGres

HIGH DEPTH ELEVATION COLLECTION

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4501

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4502

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4503

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4504

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4505

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4506

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4507

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4508

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

4509

1. Frank Gehry

This West Coast architect is undoubtedly the most famous in the world right now, thanks to his 1997 design for the Guggenheim Museum branch in Bilbao, Spain.

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4510

2. Jeanne Gang

In a discipline dominated by men, Jean Gang stand out as one of the few female architects who has received major commissions

4 piece view

4511

2. Jeanne Gang

In a discipline dominated by men, Jean Gang stand out as one of the few female architects who has received major commissions

4 piece view

4512

2. Jeanne Gang

In a discipline dominated by men, Jean Gang stand out as one of the few female architects who has received major commissions

4 piece view

4513

2. Jeanne Gang

In a discipline dominated by men, Jean Gang stand out as one of the few female architects who has received major commissions

4 piece view

4514

2. Jeanne Gang

In a discipline dominated by men, Jean Gang stand out as one of the few female architects who has received major commissions

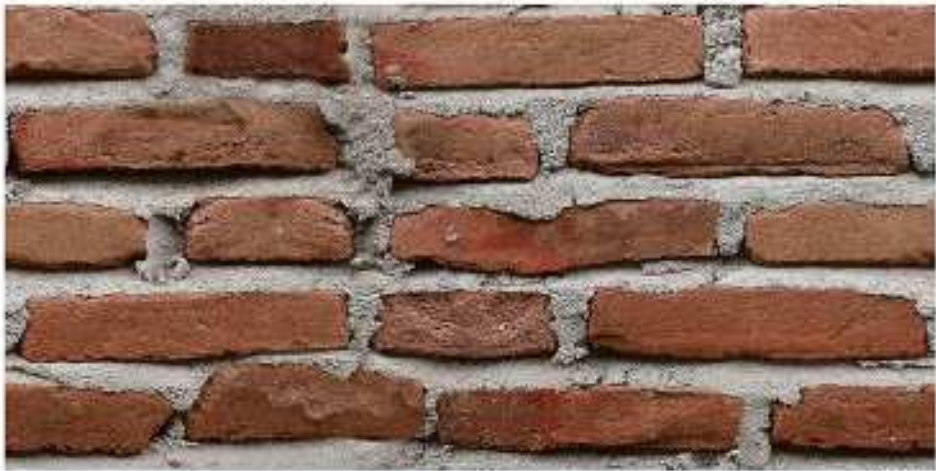

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4515

3.Zaha Hadid

One of the few women to have risen to the level of architect—and the first ever to win architecture's version of the Oscar, the Pritzker Prize—Zaha Hadid (1950–2016) was known for futuristic designs that employed curving, swooping lines more suitable for UFOs than buildings

4 piece view

4516

3.Zaha Hadid

One of the few women to have risen to the level of architect—and the first ever to win architecture's version of the Oscar, the Pritzker Prize—Zaha Hadid (1950–2016) was known for futuristic designs that employed curving, swooping lines more suitable for UFOs than buildings

4 piece view

4517

3.Zaha Hadid

One of the few women to have risen to the level of architect—and the first ever to win architecture's version of the Oscar, the Pritzker Prize—Zaha Hadid (1950–2016) was known for futuristic designs that employed curving, swooping lines more suitable for UFOs than buildings

4 piece view

4518

3.Zaha Hadid

One of the few women to have risen to the level of architect—and the first ever to win architecture's version of the Oscar, the Pritzker Prize—Zaha Hadid (1950–2016) was known for futuristic designs that employed curving, swooping lines more suitable for UFOs than buildings

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4519

4.Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

4520

4.Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

4521

4.Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

4522

4. Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

4523

4.Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

4524

4.Cesar Pelli

Cesar Pelli is the brain behind some of the world's tallest buildings and popular urban landmarks. Because of his unique architectural designs, he was granted the American Institute of Architects Gold Medal.

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4525

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4526

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4527

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4528

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4529

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4530

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

4531

5. Philip Johnson

Philip Cortelyou Johnson was an American architect best known for his works of Modern architecture, including the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut, and his works of postmodern architecture, particularly 550 Madison Avenue in New York, designed for AT&T, and 190 South La Salle Street in Chicago.

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4532

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4533

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4534

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4535

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4536

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4537

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4538

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

4539

6. Rem Koolhaas

Born in Rotterdam in 1945, Rem Koolhaas is one of the most influential architects of his generation, not only as a building designer but also as an architectural theorist. He first came to prominence with the publication in 1978 of his book Delirious New York, an encomium to the city and its central role in shaping the 20th-century, both economically and culturally

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4540

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4541

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4542

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4543

7. Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4544

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4545

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4546

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4547

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

4548

7.Oscar Niemeyer

The Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer (1907–2012) was one of the key figures in the development of midcentury modernist design. Anticipating the work of Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid, Niemeyer employed bold curvilinear forms at a time when the boxy International Style reigned and Mies Van der Rohe's proposition that "less is more" was the mantra of the architectural field.

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4549

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4550

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4551

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4552

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4553

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4554

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

4555

8.Santiago Calatrava

The work of this Spanish architect has been described as Neofuturist, although sci-fi baroque might be closer to describing it. His buildings often resemble the ribcages of extinct robotic dinosaurs, if such things existed.

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4556

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

4557

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

4558

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

4559

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

4560

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

4561

9. Daniel Burnham

Daniel Burnham was a Gilded Age architect, who, along with partner John Wellborn Root, built what was called the first skyscraper in 1886: The 130-foot-high Montauk Building in Chicago. Burnham is best known for a much taller Flatiron Building in NYC

4 piece view

Iconic Legend Series

High depth real stone elevation

4562

10. Renzo Piano

Unlike other architects on this list, Italian architect Renzo Piano isn't recognized for having a singular style. Instead, his buildings have been eclectic, ranging from the Neo-Brutalism of his design for the Whitney Museum's home in the Meatpacking District.

4 piece view

4563

10. Renzo Piano

Unlike other architects on this list, Italian architect Renzo Piano isn't recognized for having a singular style. Instead, his buildings have been eclectic, ranging from the Neo-Brutalism of his design for the Whitney Museum's home in the Meatpacking District.

4 piece view

4564

10. Renzo Piano

Unlike other architects on this list, Italian architect Renzo Piano isn't recognized for having a singular style. Instead, his buildings have been eclectic, ranging from the Neo-Brutalism of his design for the Whitney Museum's home in the Meatpacking District.

4 piece view

INNOV ATIVE PEOPLE

INNOVATIVE SPACE

Raj Global

Ishan Ceramic zone, Wing-C, Office No.- 304,
8-A, N.H., Morbi-363642. (Gujarat) INDIA

+91-9426305152
+91-9033178653

export@rajglobal.net
marketing@rajglobal.net

www.rajglobal.net